

Salisbury Singers' 37th Concert Season 2010-2011

A Celebration of Classical Masters

Sunday, February 20, 2011, 2:00 PM – Blessed Sacrament Church, Worcester, MA

Enjoy the warmth and grace of the Classical style with two elegant vocal works accompanied by string chamber ensemble: Franz Schubert's Mass in G and Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart's Missa Brevis in F. Michael Haydn, Josef's younger brother, will also be represented with his festive Petite et Accipietis.

Tickets: $22 adults, $18 seniors, $10 tickets will be available at the door for students with ID

Michelle Graveline,
Music Director

Jean Danton
Soprano

Eileen Christiansen
Mezzo Soprano

Eric Christopher Perry
Tenor

Kyle Siddons
Baritone

With Pipes and Voices

Save the date!

Sunday, June 5, 2011, 4:00 PM – St. Paul's Cathedral, Worcester, MA

Salisbury Singers and Master Singers of Worcester join forces with organ and brass ensemble to perform music for a great space, the festive Mass Op. 130 by Joseph Jongen, as well as other Romantic choral gems by Bruckner, Parry and others.

Tickets: $25 adults, $20 seniors, $10 tickets available at the door for students with ID

Purchase tickets online at www.salisburysingers.org or call (508) 799-3848

Salisbury
Singers
INCORPORATED

