

Salisbury Singers is pleased to present our 44th Season

Benjamin Britten's War Requiem

Sunday, November 12, 2017 – 4:00 PM
Mechanics Hall, 321 Main Street, Worcester, MA

After years of planning, the choruses of Central Massachusetts and Music Worcester are thrilled to present a choral collaboration, the likes of which Worcester has never seen, to perform Benjamin Britten's War Requiem at historic Mechanics Hall.

Under the direction of Michelle Graveline, the Salisbury Singers will join forces with the Master Singers of Worcester, the Sounds of Stow, the Worcester Chorus, and the Worcester Children's Chorus for this presentation. The four choruses are pleased to welcome John Daly Goodwin as the guest conductor of this concert.

Tickets: $25.00 – $55.00

Tickets for this concert are available for purchase only from Mechanics Hall – in person or at the website. Go to goo.gl/ugrWnV or mechanicshall.org

A Tribute to Bernstein and Sondheim

Friday, May 18, 2018 – 7:30 pm
Tsotsis Family Academic Center Performance Hall,
Assumption College, 500 Salisbury St., Worcester, MA

The collaboration of Leonard Bernstein and Stephen Sondheim produced West Side Story, a Broadway classic. Musicals such as Company and A Little Night Music cemented Sondheim's reputation as a master songwriter and lyricist. Salisbury Singers presents a tapestry of the songs from these musicals and others, in a splendid evening of classic Broadway melodies.

Tickets: $30 Adults; $25 Seniors
